Hiring Manager
Cardinal Health — OR Products
Raleigh / Durham, NC

Dear Hiring Manager,

Five years of managing multimillion-dollar B2B territories has taught me one thing above all else: winning in the OR or winning on a dealer floor both come down to the same fundamentals — knowing your accounts deeply, showing up with more preparation than the competition, and making it easy for buyers to say yes. I am applying for the Sales Representative role on Cardinal Health's OR Products team because I am ready to apply that discipline in a higher-stakes clinical selling environment.

In my most recent role at KraftMaid Cabinetry, I held full sales accountability for a $5.47M annual portfolio across 23 accounts. I used Salesforce CRM and Power BI to plan my territory, manage account health, and identify competitive displacement opportunities. I grew market share across multiple key accounts during an industry-wide 8% contraction and hit 145% of monthly quota in January 2026. At TTI, I drove 5.15% year-over-year revenue growth on a $4.06M multi-brand territory through daily face-to-face field activity and structured product demonstrations to buyer groups.

I understand that OR product selling introduces a clinical dimension I have not yet worked in. I am approaching this transition directly: I am committed to learning the surgical environment, the procurement process, and the Cardinal OR product portfolio thoroughly before my first account call. What I bring immediately is the territory management infrastructure — Salesforce fluency, Power BI analytics, disciplined prospecting, and a track record of performing under quota pressure — that a strong OR rep also needs.

I am relocating to the Triangle area without timeline constraints and can start immediately. I would appreciate the opportunity to discuss how my background fits the OR Products role and what your territory's current priorities look like.

Sincerely,
